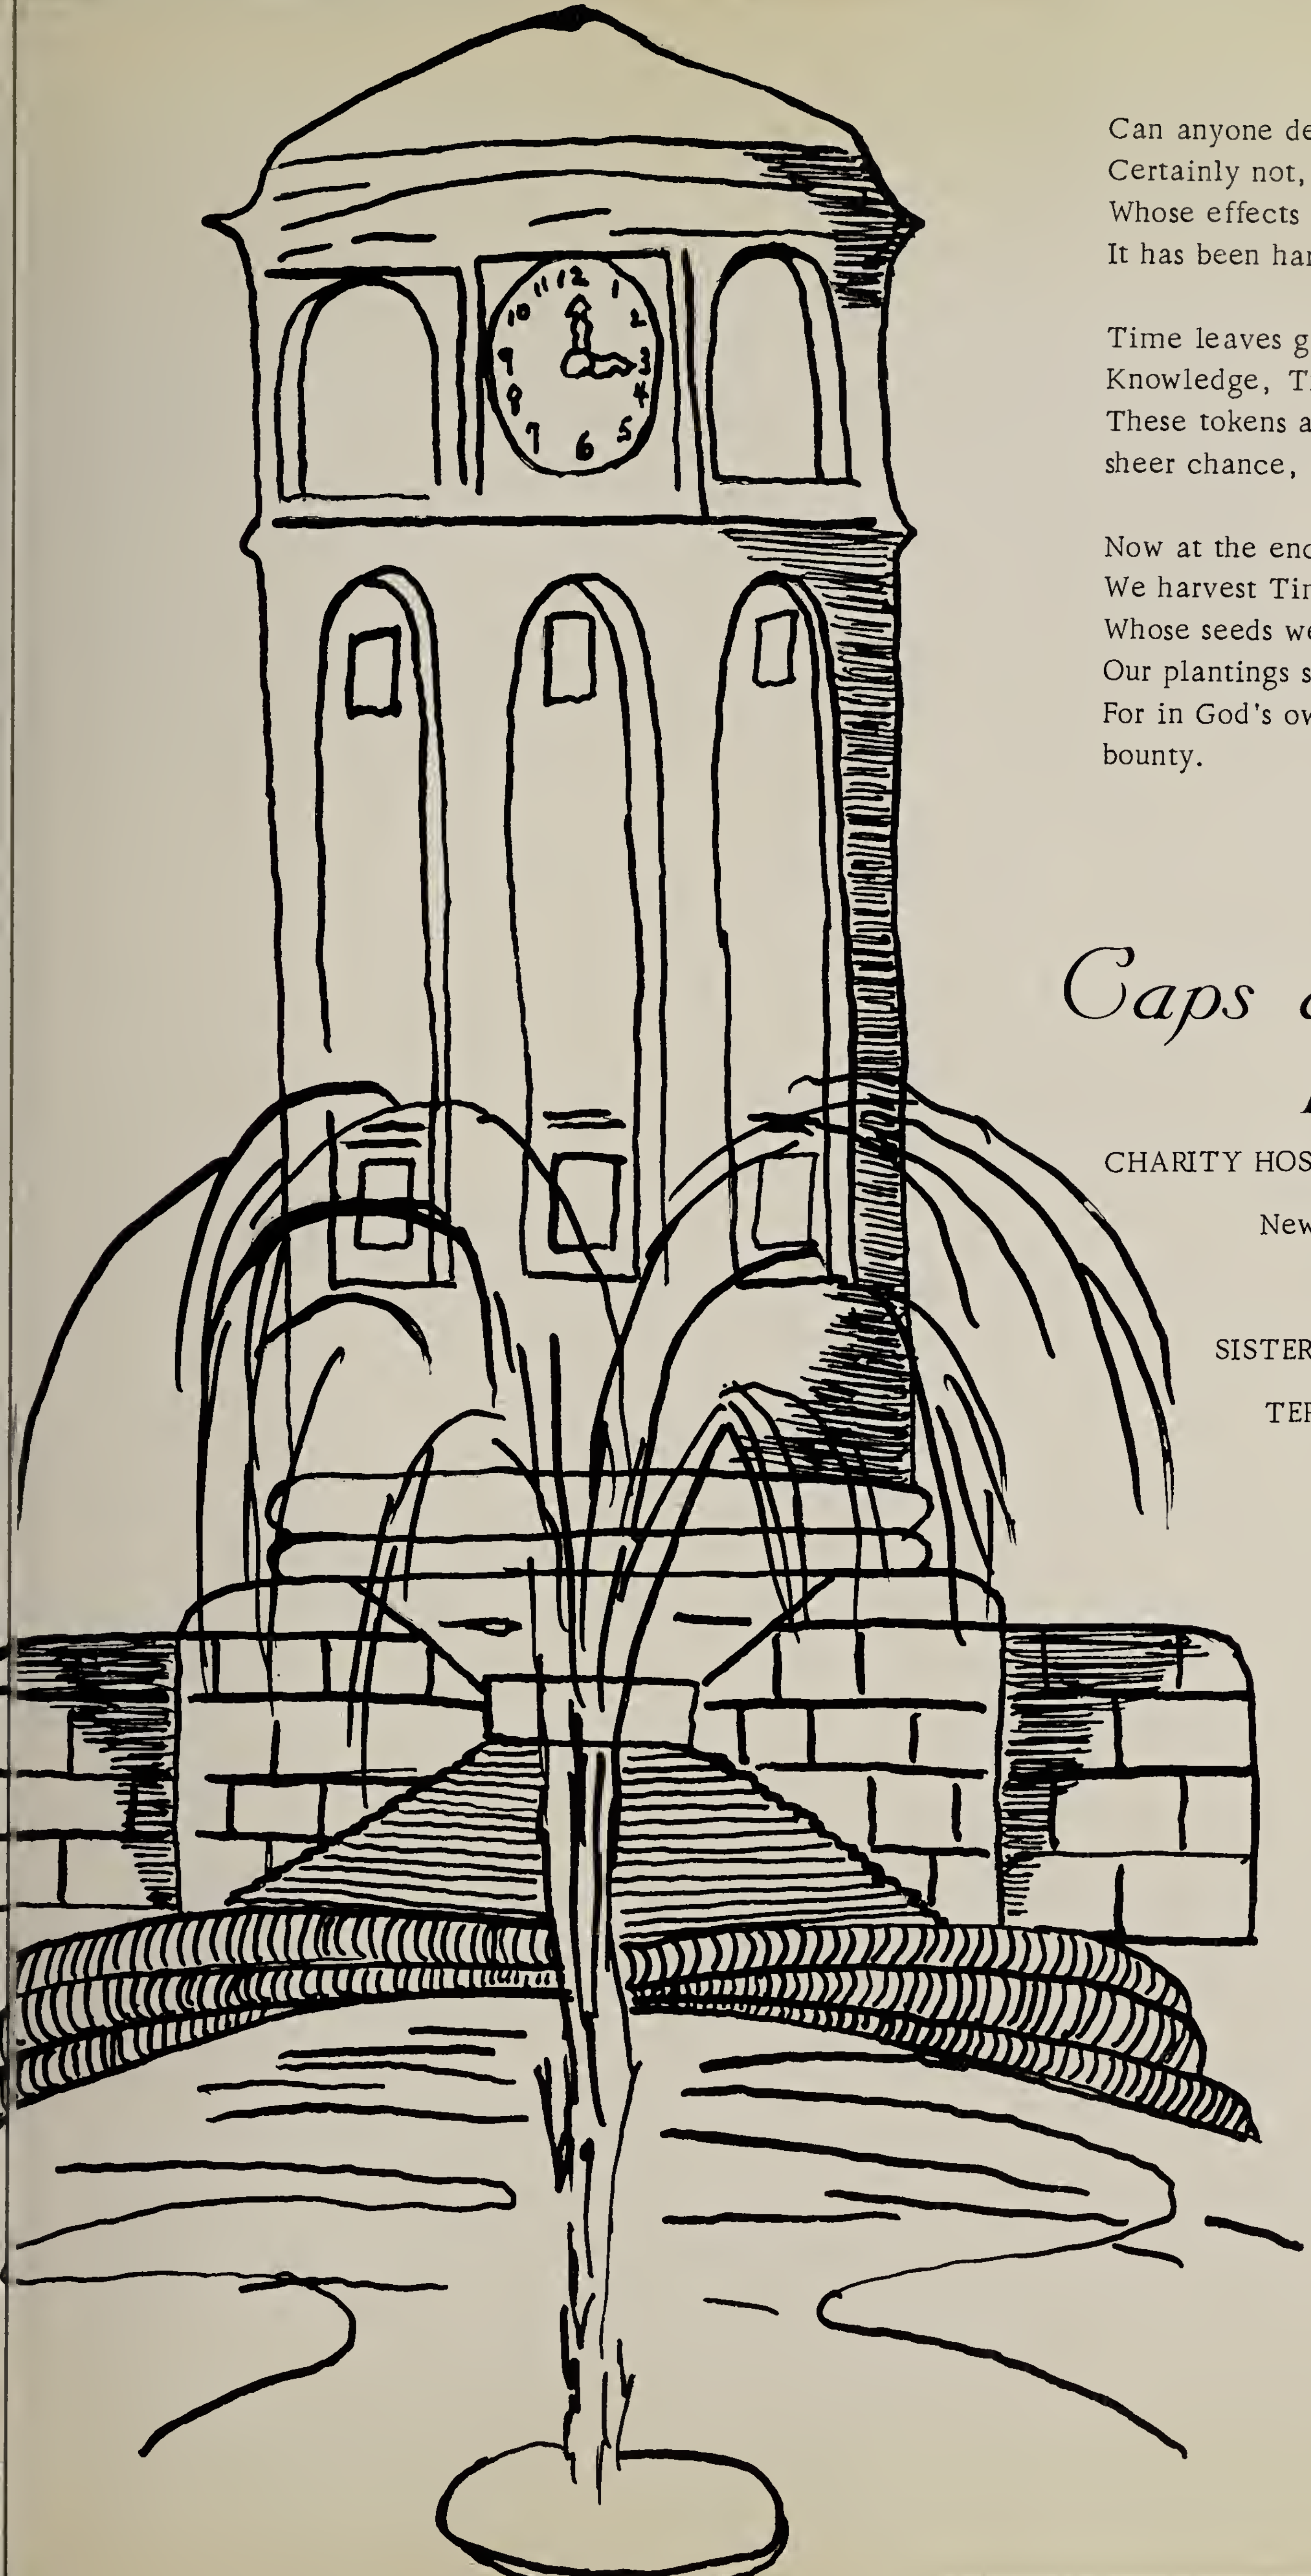
CAPS AND CAPES

1963



Can anyone define Time?
Certainly not, for it is a thing of spirit
Whose effects we know but essence not.
It has been harnessed to fit a man-made use.

Time leaves gifts as it passes--
Knowledge, Tradition, Ideals, Hope.
These tokens are obtained not through sheer chance, but by prolonged effort.

Now at the end of another season
We harvest Time's crop
Whose seeds were ambition and duty.
Our plantings shall produce an abundant crop
For in God's own Time we shall receive our bounty.

book, which depict the people, places, and events of this year at Charity, may be an inspiration to meet the challenge of the new age, an encouragement to advance ONWARD, and a fond reminder of school at Charity.

Farewell

Time conquers all, yet can time really erase something as lasting as memories. Not if they are the recollections of perplexity and comprehension, disappointments and achievement, sorrow and joy, such as we have experienced. Father Time may rush us through these years, but graduation will be no indication of his victory, for we will live these moments over and over again, long after he has shrouded our diplomas with dust. Though the ravages of time may claim our alma mater, they can never deprive us of the memories we will treasure forever--the greatest of these--CHARITY.

Sincerely yours,

Terry Gibbs
